

Chattanooga Design Studio

2016 Fall Internship

About the Organization

The mission of the Chattanooga Design Studio is to enhance Chattanooga's quality of life by educating the community about, advocating for, and facilitating excellent urban design.

We are a not-for-profit public interest urban design center with a focus on Chattanooga's downtown.

About the Position

The Intern will assist Design Studio staff with design and planning projects located within Chattanooga's dynamic downtown and Innovation District. Current projects respond to challenges in the urban environment, and include asset mapping, community engagement, redevelopment proposals, and traffic and streetscape studies.

You will contribute to the professional work of the Studio. Duties may include: preparing studies and visual materials in support of the design process; surveying and documenting field conditions and community preferences; and preparing for and participating in community meetings.

Qualifications

We value a variety of skills, with an emphasis on design thinking and visual communication. You should bring some knowledge or interest in one or more of the following: Chattanooga; urban design; the public realm; and community development. You should be prepared to work in a team setting and to work independently under the direction of the permanent staff.

Hours and Compensation

This is a part-time position, 15-20 hours per week, during the workday, 8:30 to 5:00. The position starts immediately and runs through December 9. Compensation is $10 per hour.

To Apply

Please send the following to rwroth@chattanoogastudio.com in PDF format:

- A letter of interest, describing your specific personal interest in the position.
- A current resumé.
- A short portfolio of relevant original work, if applicable.
