

SPRING 2018 GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERNSHIP

About the Organization

The Chattanooga Design Studio is currently offering a graphic design internship to help advance the Studio's local presence and community outreach. As a steward of the city's rich legacy of urban design and planning, the Studio will strive to increase public awareness of urban design issues and their impact upon our quality of life. With a particular emphasis on the importance of the public realm, the Studio will provide high level coordination of urban design efforts to help frame a vision for the future growth of the city that promotes optimal value for the community.

About the Position

The Intern will assist Design Studio staff with graphic design for urban design related projects located within Chattanooga's dynamic downtown and Innovation District. Current projects respond to challenges in the urban environment, and include public realm and streetscape studies. Current projects include working with professional staff to help publish reporting documents with materials created within the studio.

Qualifications

We value a variety of skills, with an emphasis on graphic design, marketing, communications, and visual communication. The intern should bring some knowledge or be advancing knowledge academically in these fields. The intern candidate should be prepared to work in a team setting and to work independently under the direction of the studio's professional staff.

Hours and Compensation

This is a part-time position, 15-20 hours per week, on site, during studio office hours - 8:30 am to 5:00 pm. These positions will generally be available from January 15 to May 15, 2018. Compensation will be $10 per hour.
